MEETING OF MEDICOS.

Physicians Declare There Has Been Good Results from Vaccination.

A meeting of the State Medical Sociey was held last evening in the city and county building. The members came together expecting to witness new demonstrations with the X-ray by Dr. Pfoutz, but that gentleman being ill, the lecture and demonstration was postponed till February 24th, the next meeting of the society.
The time was not permitted to go to waste, however, and the assembly was interested in listening to the peculiar experiences of several of the medicos. Dr. H. N. Mayo, who has just re-turned from the East, stated that the antisceptic methods employed and the deposited its larvae in a lady's nasal organ, from which developed over sixty screw worms, and the only way in which he could get them out was by spraying them with chloroform. Dr. Mayo and others had a short discussion on mountain fever and ty-phoid. The secretary was directed to obtain a copy of a paper on the sub-ject written by Dr. Smart, and read

Drs. Stewart and Whitney explained the care that was taken in vaccinating at the public health office. They af-firmed that there were but few injurious results from vaccination. Dr. Ewing offered $20,000 for a sample of what the opponents of vaccination style "poisonous puss."

Dr. Snow told how he removed tumor recently from the base of a young lady's tongue, and Dr. Wilcox told of the taking of a hat pin from the abdominal cavity of a three-year-old child without serious results. Dr. Scott, who returned recently from San Francisco, spent much of his time in the hospitals there. He thinks that the Salt Lake hospitals have better methods.

There were three lady members of the profession present at last night's meeting. Thy were Dr. Gemmel, Dr. Miles and Dr. Barnes.

DEATH OF MAMIE ERDMAN. Coroner's Verdict Indicates that it Resulted from a Criminal Act.

Special per Deseret Telegraph. Ogden, Utah, Feb. 13.—The coroner's inquest over the body of Mamie Erdwas continued this morning at Dr. H. J. Powers, the attending physician of the deceased at the time of her death, testified that the deceased had not given birth to a child, and that no abortion had been performed to his knowledge. He said that he had thor-oughly examined the young lady's body. and that in his examination he had found nothing that would cause him to believe that she was in the condition that some doctors had testified they had found the removed parts of the body in. A few questions were asked the father of the deceased, and also of Norman Hanson, but nothing was developed in their testimony. This closed the examination and the coroner's jury rendered the following verdict:

MR. BUTLER GETS NOTHING. | MUCH TALK ABOUT UTAH.

Ignorance of the People Respecting the "Mormons"-Heard Bryan-No Use for Silver.

George E. Blair returned from a visit to the principal cities of the East today. In New York he succeeded in interesting capitalists in the American Falis (Idaho) Water and Electric Power company. A new company is now being formed to take the rights and property of the Bonanza Power and Land company, put in sufficient power, light and heat to the city of Pocatello, and to operate electric dredges for the saving of the gold in the Snake river. The company will also put in pumps to irrigate the land along the river and furnish water to the placer mines. A representative of the new company wil visit this city shortly, and the work of putting in the plant will be begun as oon as he arrives. Speaking of the times in the East Mr Blair said that things were prosperous in the manufacturing lines, but he $1,500. It is also provided that the plainfound agricultural matters very much

"There was considerable talk about fendant take nothing by his counter-Utah," said Mr. Blair, "Nearly every-one I met wanted to talk and argue with me on the Roberts question. Few that I talked with knew anything conerning 'Mormonism,' Utah or its re sources. The majority thought 'Mormonism and polygamy were synony-mous terms, and when Mr. Roberts was excluded took it for granted that no 'Mormon' could ever again sit in Con-kress. I was frequently asked 'What are the resources of Utah? Have you any mining?' One young man suggested that I take a trip East this summer and enjoy a bath at one of their noted bothing resorts. He was surprised when I told him that within fifteen miles of where I lived we had one of finest bathing places in the world He said he had never heard of it."
Mr. Blair said that Roberts had made a whole host of friends all through the East. Lots of people told him that they considered Roberts a brave man and a good man otherwise he could never have pu; up the fight he did. "The contest has given Utah any amount of advertising," he continued, "and I reet we have no board of trade ould take advantage of the situation as it exists with respect to Utah in the Mr. Blair met Bryan and heard him

The Transvaal, unlike those hilly countries in which the Boers have thus far so sagaclously fought, affords a wide and level stretch for British soldiery, mounted or afoot. But the general impression here, I find, is that Pretoria and Johannesburg have been fortified with tremendous precaution. The Boers are shrewdly cognizant, so to put it, of their own geography. If Bloemfontein, in the Orange Free State, is strongly fortified, that, too, may become the object of a fierce siege. But one thing is sure: topographically speaking, the enemy is yet only at their gates. If he bursts them and sweeps into the regions of either Republic, all present conditions of warfare must cease. The English troops may have new Sebastopol to deal with, or perhaps even three; but they will be en-abled to employ, also, those less difficult tactics of warfare which have be-onged so largely to Belgian battlefields. Still that the Boers would confront them thus, on open ground, is highly dubious. The superiority of British opponents would be in itself overwhelming at this stage of the contest. More-over, the Sirdar, with his quick, sharp, Omdurman methods, would be ravagingly in his element. Him and the mur-derous tricks of his Maxims the Boers, be sure of it, have already studiously noted. We are now aware that every possibility of their safe issue from this most unequal conflict has long ago been subtly calculated. It would be idle to suppose that they have not anticipated an enormous invasion of their territo-ry, and no less idle to suppose that they have staked their final chances upon have staked their final chances upon the seizure of two eastern and western borderland towns. Thus far what they have won has been won by adroitness of maneuver only—by the quick-turn-ing capacities of their agile Basuto ponies, by their intimate knowledge of stream, pass, kopie and veldt. To their forts, in the last emergency, they will scamper, and in their forts they will either prove themselves irresignifiched. either prove themselves irresistible (which has a fairy-tale sound), or perish (which has a sound sternly credible).— Edgar Fawcett in Collier's Weekly.

BOB FITZSIMMONS MAKES A SPEECH

SAYS NOTHING OF CORBETT,

A New York dispatch this morning says: "Bob" Fitzsimmons, the pugilist, was noticed in a box at a Brooklyn theater last night by an improviso singer, which devoted one verse of his song to the ex-champion. This provoked yells and calls for a speech from the audience. Pitzsimmons arose in the box and facing the audience said: "Tomorrow (Tuesday) I shall post P forfeit of $5,000 in Manhattan and issue again for any amount, preferably $10,-000. I will meet his backers by adding that I am willing to make an agree ment for the winner to take all the recelpts. If he won't accept I will take on Sharkey, and if he don't want to fight, I will take on McCoy or any one else. All I want is to fight again." When the ex-champion had concluded someone shouted: "Why don't you give Corbett another chance?" "Let that dead one get a reputation first," replied Fitzsimmons.

When Fitzsimmons left the theater after the performance an immense crowd followed him. In order to escape he jumped on a passing wagon, the crowd still following. The driver of the wagon, seeing the crowd was under the impression that Fitz was demented and attempted to eject him, but Fitz told him who he was. The driver then drove rapidly toward the Broadway Ferry and Fitzsimmons took a
